Britannia Triumphant

HMS Victory, 20th October 1805

The most decisive and glorious Naval Victory that has ever been obtained. The victorious British Fleet commanded by the most renowned, most gallant, ever to be lamented hero Admiral Lord Nelson.

Battle of Trafalgar

This memorable action was fought off Cape Trafalgar near the entrance of the Straits of Gibraltar on the 21st October

1805. The enemy on the day was the combined fleets of France and Spain commanded by Admirals Villanueve and Gravina.

Captain's Log

May the Great God, whom I worship, grant to my country, and for the benefit of Europe in general, a great and glorious victory; and may no misconduct in anyone tarnish it; and may humanity after victory be the predominant feature in the British Fleet.

For myself, individually, I commit my life to Him who made me, and may His blessing light upon my endeavours for serving my country faithfully.

To Him I resign myself and just cause which is entrusted to me to defend. Amen. Amen. Amen.”

Horatio Nelson, Vice Admiral of the White, H.M.S Victory, 21st October 1805.
